- Commissioner Wilsey made a motion to approve the January 2017 meeting minutes. The motion was approved.

Treasure's Report

- Commissioner Wilsey, Treasurer and Vice Chairman, announced that the ANC 2C opening balance for the budget in January was $43,184.33. There was one expense paid; an outstanding check is still open (prior expense); and we received the Quarterly District Allotment of $1,541.59. The closing balance for January is $44,658.02.

Secretary's Report

- Commissioner Harrison, Secretary, announced that time allocation for speakers will continue for this meeting. Presenters who have Brief Community Announcements or will be discussing Local Events Impacting the Community will have five minutes to present. All other speakers will have 10 minutes to present. Community members will have one minute to speak and may only be called upon once during a presentation.
 - Commissioner Tinpe asked about the location of where meeting information is located. Commissioner Harrison stated that all meeting details (agendas, minutes, meeting audio recordings, and soon to be meeting resolutions) are located on the ANC 2C website (<https://anc2c.dc.gov>).

Brief Community Announcements and Presentations

1. Mayor's Community Liaison for Ward-2, Richard Livingstone (Richard.Livingstone@dc.gov) shared the following announcements from the Mayor's office:
 - February is Black History month and two events may be of interest: The Mayor will break ground on the new Fredrick Douglas Bridge; there is an unveiling of Fredrick Douglas portrait at City Hall. Go to <https://dcarts.dc.gov> to learn more.
 - Preparations for the city-wide budget are underway. The Mayor is hosting for opportunity for community members to comment on the budget.
 - Unveiling of the Marion Barry statue in front of City Hall will occur on Saturday, March 3 at 11:30 AM. Please RSVP for the event if you are interested in attending.
 - Commissioner Tinpe announced that on Sunday, February 18, is the Chinese New Year parade. The Mayor and Councilmember Jack Evans will be marching in the parade. All are welcome to attend.

2. Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), Captain Jonathan Dorrrough (Jonathan.Dorrrough@dc.gov) provided the following updates:
 - Lieutenant Jason Bagshaw was introduced as the new evening Lieutenant.
 - Crime trends in our area were down overall in 2017 and the MPD did a great job. At the start of 2018 the numbers continue to be down in our area.
 - There was a homicide at 461 H Street on February 3. A suspect has been identified, he is considered to be homeless, and a wanted posted has been released. The homicide was domestic issue.
 - There was a stabbing at 461 H Street toward the end of January. This incident was an aggravated assault and was not related to the homicide. This incident is being covered by DC Housing Authority (DCHA) police.
 - Regarding the shooting that occurred on H Street near the Metro in December, that case is still open. The MPD has video footage but the quality of the footage is not good.
 - At Penn Social, toward the end of January, there was an altercation between patrons and a staff member. This matter was closed with an arrest. When an incident such as this occurs at an establishment selling alcohol, ABRA gets involved. The restaurant staff was helpful with information.
 - The Community Engagement Academy is now open for enrollment. The deadline to sign up by is March 7. This is a good program for the community to get a good look at how the MPD operates. To learn more go to: <https://mpdc.dc.gov/release/community-engagement-academy>
 - Lt Jason Bagshaw introduced himself. He can be reached at: Jason.bagshaw@dc.gov or 202.748.1228.

- Commissioner Tinpe asked if it would help to have a camera at 6th and H STs. Captain Dorrrough said cameras are always good and there are a lot in the area however it would be good to have better cameras in the area. Commission Tinpe asked if the MPD has working relationship w/ the management Judiciary House (416 H St). Captain Dorrrough said they have good relations w/ DCHA police, but not necessarily the management of that building. Commissioner Tinpe asked if people involved in the homicide were residents or visitors at Judiciary House. Captain Dorrrough said one was a resident and one was visiting. Both men have long histories with the MPD.
